v.

HELEN CAMERON,

CIVIL CONTEMPT COMPLAINT
(MASS. R. CIV. P. 65.3)

Joshua Krefetz, Receiver appointed for the property located at 98 Topliff St., Dorchester, MA (the "property"), hereby complains that in the above-captioned matter, this Court issued numerous Orders, copies of which are contained as exhibits to the attached affidavit submitted herewith, and that Helen Cameron disregarded and violated said Orders by entering onto the property and by filing a second and subsequent complaint for injunctive relief, in which the Receiver was again named as a defendant, in Suffolk Superior Court on April 14, 2017.

The Defendant is also in contempt of this Court due to her repeated and voluminous filings and allegations in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court and the Suffolk Superior Court which are designed to frustrate the Receiver's work and accuse the Receiver of various criminal acts, including but not limited to claiming that the Receiver forged Judge Winik's signature and conspired with the clerks of the Housing Court to fraudulently affix a Clerk-Magistrate's seal on a document.

In support of his Complaint, the Receiver respectfully refers the Court to the attached Affidavit of Joshua Krefetz, Receiver and its exhibits.

WHEREFORE, the Receiver requests that the Court issue a contempt summons, that a hearing be held, that appropriate relief be granted, and that appropriate penalties be imposed.

Respectfully submitted,
Receiver,
